Course Overview

This Competency-Based Interviewing online training course equips participants with practical and proven techniques for competency-based and behavioural interviews. Selecting the right candidate for any internal or external position is a crucial managerial skill, improving retention, lowering costs, and enhancing performance.

The course focuses on competency and behavioural interviews, which rely on the principle that past behaviour is the best predictor of future performance. These methods are widely recognized as more valid and reliable than traditional unstructured interviews.

The online course is highly interactive and practical, enabling participants to learn the latest techniques and gain confidence in conducting structured interviews.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Apply a competency-based model in interviews.
- Describe the steps to conduct effective competency-based interviews.
- Follow a structured approach to achieve desired outcomes.
- Develop, ask, and score effective behavioural questions.
- Understand the advantages and limitations of online interviewing.
